1772 "the connection" — what connection?

but there is no use in cavilling the wheat the dry weather and rabbits are doing that I guess the weather with Wasky the dryer for water I one Agnes a letter make this pay the debt I will tell you what I know and what I guess at My understanding is that the connection is through the Stevenys not the Andersons but likely I am wrong I think it was Marthas mother that had ten six girls when she saw the Calyers but it might have been Williams Andersons Mother but whichever it was her husband was Marck which accounts for their mothers efficiency one of the girls I think Gurzey went off and got Married without telling it when they came back the new Groom asked her mother if she would keep his wife for awhile "she said No if she is your wife just Take her awa for I'll keep no Mans wife" I think the name was Eason Another of the girls Married a Gellis/y One of the boys owned the Home farm of Daisy Jones Grandfather Shortly after the Russells came to America he and Christina were engaged he died leaving her his farm after she

Martha Flemming, see p. 1029

William Anderson, see p. 1021

?